In this Special Edition Newsletter: Election of the Board of Directors for the 2026/2027 Session

As we approach the end of another productive year at Airfield Shooting Club, it is time to turn our attention to the upcoming election of the Board of Directors for the 2026/2027 session. This election marks a crucial moment in our club's governance, where dedicated individuals have the opportunity to step forward and shape the future of our community.

For the current year, our board consists of the following positions: President, Vice President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Chief Instructor, Maintenance Officer, Webmaster, Shotgun Director, Provost, and Orientation Director. Each role plays a vital part in ensuring the smooth operation and development of our club.

The election ballot for the new session includes open positions. Members interested in serving on the board are encouraged to review the current list of open roles and consider how their skills and passion can contribute to the club's success.

Volunteering to serve on the Board of Directors of Airfield Shooting Club is not just a responsibility; it is a rewarding experience that offers numerous benefits.

If you are interested in serving on the Board of Directors for the 2026/2027 session to help with current programs or help improve range programs, we encourage you to reach out to the current board members to express your interest and learn more about the responsibilities and expectations associated with each position.

Your involvement is crucial to the continued success of Airfield Shooting Club. Together, we can uphold our commitment to providing a safe, supportive, and enjoyable environment for everyone.

Thank you for your ongoing support and dedication to our club. We look forward to a successful election and another year of fulfilling shooting experiences.

IT'S TIME FOR BOARD ELECTIONS!

Airfield Shooting Club Board Positions

Roles & Responsibilities

President

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club and shall serve as chairman of the Board. They shall exercise general supervision of the affairs of the Club with the concurrence of the Board. They shall appoint the members of all committees and shall serve as member ex-officio on all committees except the nominating committee.

They shall ensure the Club has access to legal counsel on all matters pertaining to the Club business and activities. The President shall be eligible to vote on all matters before the Board.

The President, or their designee, shall be responsible for all public relations. No statement or opinion of any member, the President, or their designee shall represent the position of the Club without the approval of the Board. The President shall not chair, appoint members, or otherwise direct the activities or business of the Nominating Committee.

Vice President

The Vice President shall assist the President in the discharge of their duties. The Vice President shall occupy the President's position in their absence and perform their duties with the same authority as the President.

In the absence of a designated newsletter editor, the Vice President shall be responsible for the publication of a Club newsletter, which at a minimum should be published quarterly.

Secretary

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Club and its Board. They shall disseminate the minutes at regular Board meetings. They shall also provide full notice and record of decisions made and policies adopted by the Board by inclusion in the Club newsletter. The Secretary shall maintain custody of all records and correspondence of the Club, including the range log, and arrange for the maintenance of a permanent Club address or post office box routinely handling incoming mail.

The Secretary shall, at the direction of the Board, issue notice of all meetings or events, both regular and special, to the members. The Secretary shall develop all billing and paperwork for renewals and accept all member applications for processing and all membership moneys received by the Club. All funds shall then be transferred to the Treasurer.

The Secretary shall ensure that all new members have met all of the requirements for membership, to include being screened against the NSOPW. The Secretary shall maintain the NRA and State Association Recruiter Programs. Other duties include maintenance and distribution of a current Club roster with all essential member information; maintenance of a file of forms and uniform procedures for the conduct of Club business and meetings and routine Club correspondence.

In addition, the Secretary shall serve as the President in the absence of the President and Vice President performing those duties with full authority in such instance.

Assistant Secretary

When the position is filled (currently open), the Assistant Secretary shall assist the secretary in the performance of their duties as outlined above. This position shall maintain attendance records, and greet new members and guests.

Treasurer

The Treasurer shall maintain financial records of the Club, establish a set of books, open and maintain financial accounts in appropriate institutions designated by the Board and shall be responsible for receiving, accounting, and disbursing of all Club funds authorized by the Board.

At the conclusion of the fiscal year the Treasurer shall prepare a statement of financial condition of the Club for audit as directed by the Board. In addition, the Treasurer shall, with the support and cooperation of the Board, administer and monitor such Club investment programs as adopted in the best interest of the Club's assets. They shall also be responsible for filing all tax documents in a timely manner. The Club shall provide bond in an amount set by resolution to cover the office of Treasurer.

Chief Instructor

The Chief Instructor shall coordinate all instruction at the club with the approval of the Board. When possible they shall be rated by the National Rifle Association (NRA) as certified rifle, pistol or shotgun instructor. They shall coordinate with the secretary to ensure appropriate records are maintained so as to document that all new members have received instruction concerning the rules and procedures on the range.

The Chief Instructor may appoint Range Safety Officers and other assistant instructors as they deem necessary. Assistant instructors, when possible, shall be rated by the NRA as not less than Certified Instructors.

This position shall be responsible for appointing match directors, who shall plan and conduct all matches held by ASC. They shall ensure all reports for various training programs, i.e., Juniors Program, Pistol Class, etc are submitted in a timely manner to the National Rifle Association (NRA) and/or the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) as appropriate.

The Chief Instructor shall have primary responsibility for safety on all ranges. They shall be responsible for proposing changes to the range rules in order to promote safe operation of the ranges. They shall provide oversight and maintain an up-to-date inventory of the club’s more valuable training assets, including firearms, archery equipment, and such other non-consumable training materials as the Club may acquire.

The inventory shall list a clear description of major assets along with the names of those who have custody of the assets. A copy of the inventory shall be provided to the Secretary when changes are made.

Maintenance Officer

The Maintenance Officer shall have charge of the maintenance and security of the ASC range, property, and equipment. They shall be responsible for planning all work parties and shall have primary responsibility for overseeing new construction projects. They shall provide oversight for and maintain an inventory of the club’s more valuable maintenance assets.

The Maintenance Officer shall be responsible for replacement of all consumables routinely used in the course of maintaining the range. Additionally, they shall ensure compliance with Lead Best Management Practices. A Lead Management Report and a State of the Range Report (improvements, proposals, accomplishments over the period) shall be submitted to the ASC Board and to the Director of the Airfield Conference Center in June of each year.

Editor of the Club Newsletter

When the position is filled, the Editor of the Club newsletter shall be responsible for publishing and distributing the newsletter as frequently as requested by the Board. At a minimum, the newsletter should be published quarterly. They shall also cause to be published other material required by the Club.

Webmaster

When the position is filled, the Webmaster shall be responsible for maintaining the club website and e-mail distribution lists.

Shotgun Director

When the position is filled, the Shotgun Director shall be responsible for maintaining and accounting for the supply of clay targets. They shall be responsible for issuing and reloading the RFID cards. They shall also be responsible for submitting all billing to members associated with the RFID cards. The treasurer shall still collect money and verify bills are paid prior to the Shotgun director reloading the shotgun RFID cards.

They shall also oversee the maintenance of the skeet and trap machines. The Shotgun Director shall be responsible for overseeing the submission of all shotgun-related reports to the governing bodies of the various shotgun sports offered by ASC. These include, but are not limited to: National Skeet Shooting Association, Virginia Skeet Shooting Association, Amateur Trap Association, etc.

Provost

When the position is filled, the duties of the Provost are to prevent and suppress damage, to the property and the assets of the Airfield Conference Center and of the ASC by strict enforcement of the range rules; to preserve good order at the range and at ASC meetings and events; to enforce the rules and Bylaws of the ASC and the rules of the Airfield Conference Center that are applicable to the ASC members and to 4-H staff.

To investigate and report rule violations to the ASC Board and make recommendations for disciplinary action; to administer disciplinary actions and punishment imposed by the ASC Board: to take corrective action to ensure the safety of the range at all times, including but not limited to the removing of ASC members or other persons (by contacting police authorities if necessary) who may pose a safety risk or are otherwise in violation of the rules of ASC; They shall assist the Chief Instructor in proposing changes to the range rules in order to promote safe operation of the ranges.

Orientation Director

When the position is filled, the duties of the Orientation Director are to manage new member orientations. This includes corresponding with potential new club members, sending and processing club applications, verifying credential requirements, creating badges, scheduling orientation dates, soliciting volunteers to help run orientations, and attending all orientations to facilitate check-in. When the position is unfilled, the duties of the Orientation Director default to the secretary.

Final Call to Action

If you've been eager to see fresh programs—like new training classes, range improvements, expanded shooting disciplines, and youth initiatives—now is the perfect time to step up and join the ASC Board of Directors.

Being on the board puts you in the driver's seat to help prioritize these upgrades, shape new programs like defensive shooting or pistol training, and fill important roles that keep the club moving forward.

Airfield Shooting Club is built on community service, education, and safety. Members commit to six hours of public service per year—including volunteering for events, youth programs, and facility improvements. Board members go further: they vote on budgets, approve new training initiatives (like Pistol Class, Shotgun 101, Rimfire Challenges, and Defensive Shotgun training), and help recruit the volunteers who make all this possible.

Board involvement means you can advocate for youth-focused programs like Swamp Shooters, women's events, and the upcoming 5-stand shotgun facility.

If you've envisioned a more dynamic training calendar, better-maintained range infrastructure, or expanded competitive shooting opportunities, this is your opportunity. Joining the board means more than filling a seat—it's about steering the future of ASC, strengthening community engagement, and ensuring our club thrives for years to come.

Come out to vote for this year's officers and join us for breakfast!
